Paula says ...

It is good to be back with you. Thank you to those who have filled in and carried an extra load while I have been on leave the last few weeks. I have resumed my role but at slightly reduced hours for the next while. I will be in the office Tuesdays – Thursdays, but can be available at other times to visit or meet. Please contact me if you would like a visit.

As I catch up with people it is good to hear what God has been doing in people's lives. As we let Him, He's always at work, in us and through us. This morning we take time to hear stories from each other about the goodness of God and how He is answering prayer and changing lives. May we all be encouraged as we share these stories.

Called To Care:

I am excited to announce we have a great training opportunity coming up in two weeks time. Sue Ogilvie, Pastor of Church Care at Windsor Park Baptist, is coming to further equip us in how to care for others well. My heart is that this would help us build really good foundations for us to care and love well. This seminar is open to all - in particular anyone with a heart to care for others, in leadership of any kind, home group leaders, youth and children's leaders and all who want to develop skills in caring. What we will learn will be of benefit both within the church and in our roles outside as we seek to love and care well.

When: Friday 30th November, 6:30pm - 9pm
Saturday 31st November, 8am – 1pm
Where: Mangapapa Church

Let's take this opportunity to learn together so we can respond appropriately and confidently to pastoral care needs as "Jesus with skin on".

Please let us know in the office if you are coming.

Blessings, Paula
