Paula writes....

I wonder how you went this week asking God to open your eyes and noticing people, following the example of Jesus and the way he connected with people? Jesus was amazing at noticing the one among the crowd, discerning real needs and then engaging courageously yet gently. Who did you notice this week?

Last week I gave everyone a 10 cent piece, and as I asked you to notice carefully the pictures on it, encouraged you to use it as a reminder to carefully notice others. I wonder too whether it is a reminder that perhaps the true treasure and rewards we gather in this life, are in fact not money or things, but are the relationships and encounters we have with people that demonstrate the Kingdom. Just a thought.

We welcome you to our Family Service this morning where Debbie and the Kidzspace team will lead us in a look at the Kingdom of God and reflecting on this theme of Treasure.

This afternoon we join with several other churches to celebrate and pray for the work of Te Hahi. This is a wonderful ministry with a heart to facilitate change for good in our city and help support the Police in their work as they daily face dealing with families in crisis. Come and learn more, worship with those from other churches around our city, pray for this work and those in significant need, and share a meal together.

Finally, congratulations to Mr and Mrs Tyrone and Tirzah Rolfe - married here yesterday!! Thanks to all those who helped make this a very special occasion. Pray for them as they embark on this adventure together.

Blessings, Paula

There is a Te Hahi combined church service tonight at 5pm, at Alive Church in Leith Street and all are welcome. There will be a shared meal afterward, so please come and bring a plate.

Midwinter Christmas Dinner – 17th July

We are having a Christmas Mid Winter dinner on Wednesday July 17th for our church family, our friends, CAP clients and residents from the Mangapapa suburb. We hope it will be an evening where we enjoy each other's company and develop connections. There will be a promotion for the Alpha course and a light/short message with a Christian Christmas theme. We are planning entertainment for the children and some live music and drama for the adults.

Please start praying for this evening; whether you will come, who you could invite, and whether you would like to be part of helping. There will be more details to follow, but if you have any ideas or want to offer your services you can speak with Paula or Nicola.

A HUGE 'THANK YOU' to those who came to the Working Bee last weekend. It was such a great turn-out and we accomplished so much. Trees cut down and firewood stacked, a new path laid by the garage, the playground removed in the creche, the decking waterblasted and stained, paint touched up, spouting cleared, weeding done, windows gleaming, rubbish removed – and a delicious morning tea.

Thank you all you wonderful hard workers!
(PS: If you have any receipts that need reimbursing, please give them to Dione).
