THEME OF:- FRIENDSHIP, JOY, SUFFERING, CONVICTION, GENEROSITY

Today we will be providing an overview of Paul's Letter to the Philippians. This overview will cover both the letter itself as well as other important details about this church found in Acts 15:36 – 17:15 and 2 Co 8:1 – 5. I would encourage you to read these passages alongside the letter. We intend to cover one chapter of the letter in detail over the coming few weeks. If you like reading, then you might find it fun to read the entire letter in one sitting... It might take you 20-30 minutes. Maybe you could consider doing this once per week over the coming weeks... to allow the depth and richness of the letter truly come out. Look for the repeated themes which we will identify today.

Friendship, joy, suffering, conviction and generosity.

If you are part of a small group, then you may wish to identify a good reader in the group and try listening to the letter read aloud in one sitting...just like the original Philippians would have received it! Hope you enjoy it!
