Frank Darcy Writes... In Mark chapter 3, Jesus faced a lot of opposition. His disciples must have wondered why people were so opposed when his teachings were so awesome and his miracles were blessing so many people. In chapter 4, Jesus gives the parable of the sower, which shows why the proclamation of the Word causes such diverse reactions. It all has to do with people's heart conditions. But then Jesus encouraged them by two parables about what "the kingdom" is like. In the parable of the growing seed, Jesus shows that it is God who works causing the seed to grow. Also, he promises that ultimately there will be a harvest. Those who have wholeheartedly received the Word with gladness would then be richly blessed. Then, in the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus assures them that though "the kingdom" appears to have very small beginnings, ultimately it would grow enormously. We too, should be able to be encouraged to know these principles are true for us as well in 2018.

There is nothing the nearness of Jesus cannot overcome.
