Looking FORWARD >> with Faith & Hope: 20 - 21 April

Stewart Writes... This Sunday 10am, is the first Worship Service of our next 100 years, and it is a great pleasure to welcome Ian Grant, to preach the first sermon! Ian has had a lifetime of leadership and pioneering - from 'NZ Youth For Christ', to 'Parents Inc', to now 'Fathers Who Dare Win' & 'Faith 4 Families', Ian & Mary Grant have been outstanding advocates for children & youth, families & parents. In February our nation recognised that, awarding him 'Senior New Zealander of the Year 2013'. As we look forward into the future with Faith & Hope in our God, I am confident in the purpose He has for the 'Worship, Witness and Community' that is Mangapapa Church here. I pray the Lord blesses Ian's message and it ignites that faith and hope in young and old alike for His church of the future.

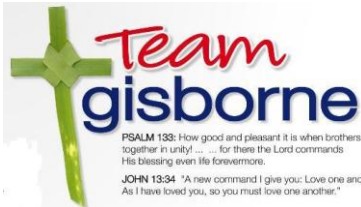

Ian will be speaking 3 times over this weekend, commencing with the 'Fathers Who Dare Win' Community Breakfast on Saturday morning, 8am, and concluding at the Combined Churches Service Sunday night, at 'The House of Breakthrough'. It is quite special that we have the privilege of leading the Service there, so do come along.

Our 100 year Anniversary, was just great. How can I thank so many for your parts and contributions to some great times? Well in a take on a line from a famous add, "The Crunchie Bars are on me!" Everyone gets one at morning tea today.

Tonight 6pm 'Team Gisborne Combined Churches Service', at the House of Breakthrough'. This Service will be led by our Mangapapa Church Worship Team.

News from the Assets & Finance Team meeting this week...

- Budgets and expenditure are tracking well. Income slightly above budget.
- Decided the hallway at back of the auditorium will be spruced up/repainted in the colours of the auditorium, now that our water pipes bursting issue resolved.

There is nothing the nearness of Jesus cannot overcome.

More Pics from last weekend Anniversary Celebrations...

1 - From 'Downton Abbey' comes Anne Russell, & 2 (right of pic kneeling), Mary Mazengarb & Diane McLean

3 The Fijian Worship Group in full voice & harmony

4 The Centenary Mosaic work progresses well

5. Were you there? The Anniversary Service 10am, 14 April
