Stewart writes... It's a delight to welcome the 2017 EXCEL School of Performing Arts Tour Team to lead our morning worship today, and of course to have our very own Tirzah Russell as part of that Team. I also extend a special Greeting to the Samoan Methodist Church who are joining with us in worship today – Tolafa lava! EXCEL has been performing in Schools throughout the city

(pictured left is Tirzah & Paul Uatison, in a drama at Sonrise School), and then the Friday night Youth Concert at H.O.B. This morning they present their Service theme – ‘The Power of Others’. The real moments of change and growth in our lives always involves people. The relationships we have today impact our future. We explore the 4 corners of connection as outlined in Henry Cloud’s powerful book ‘The Power of the Other’. Here is a link to a message he gave last year which has really inspired us as we have prepared this programme. The Power of the Other

This Evening – 4:30pm to 6pm
‘Parenting Small Group’ @ the Church
‘No Fear In Love’
is the theme for this session.

There is nothing the nearness of Jesus cannot overcome.

For Prayer & Praise this week:

- Malcolm Manuel is doing pretty well at his own home, after the passing of wife Margaret. There are lonely times and visits welcomed, best before 1pm.
- Hello from the Philippines – John & Angela Paton @ RUEL
 Hi Church family! We're having as usual a very busy time over here in Calapan City. It's great to be back with our Philippine Ruel family and check out how the kids have grown, as well as what needs fixing! Angela's highlight is starting Ukulele classes with 10 very enthusiastic kids, and 4 Ukes I bought with a donation! Also, took an 11yr old girl to have her eyes tested and she came home with new glasses! Six of the kids here have reached the passport stage of their adoptions so we'll be welcoming parents soon from Sweden, Italy, Aust, NZ, and USA. This is a big highlight for everyone, saying goodbye to a child, knowing they have a wonderful future ahead of them, although the kids don't always see it like that ...there's always tears when their friend/playmate leaves. Bye for now. Angela and John.

Families Midwinter ‘Pot-Luck’ Dinner: New Date, next Saturday 1 July, 4.30pm – 6.30pm.

'Kidzspace' Invite families to bring their winter favourite dish for this Pot Luck dinner, and you may like to;

- Dress to express your unique family flavour.
- Bring along an object/photo to show what your family is passionate about.
- Make/decorate a Family Name card/poster or do when you arrive [needed for a Family game/activity]

Coming Up – ‘Net Work Ministries’ Ross & Glynda Bartlett 4-8 August.

Ross & Glynda return to present a seminar 'Imparting and Moving in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit', on Saturday 5 August, 9:45am – 2:30pm. They will be with us for 3 days of ministry here, including preaching, 'Prayer 4 U' & Home Group.

Nicola’s CAPtion – At the moment many clients are needing to collect paperwork and are therefore not ready to continue with the next step of the process with me. Please pray specifically that the 4 clients who have been in this phase for a long time complete this task. (Often people want to get debt free but they are not ready or able to commit to the work required to achieve this goal).

‘CAP Money Course’ - Training Opportunity There is a training course on in Napier next weekend on Saturday 1 July, 9:30am-4:30pm. If someone would like to train for presenting the 'CAP Money' programme, contact Stewart or Kathy McGurk if you are interested in this. (Transport down may be available).
